

This week...

SHOOTING TIMES 13.01.2010 ISSUE 5,653
A COUNTRY MAGAZINE

16

24

28

NEWS

- 4 News: an update on the cold weather bans affecting shooters throughout the British Isles
- 6 News: shooters must respond right now if they want a say on DEFRA's new gamebird rearing code
- 9 Opinion: Jayne Hayes, of the charity DogLost, offers her view on ways to secure your dogs from thieves

THE BIG STORIES

- 16 COVER STORY: How a shoot near London has reclaimed landfill sites for sport and conservation
- 24 COVER STORY: Charlotte Lycett Green enjoys a sporting day at a novice golden retriever stake
- 28 COVER STORY: Reports of extraordinary heads are on the up in this year's English roe deer review
- 36 COVER STORY: Reliving the dream shot — Blue Zulu recalls his "bath birds" in the comfort of the tub

REGULAR FEATURES

- 12 LETTERS: Two Guns pop the question at the peg
- 15 COUNTRY GUN: A glorious last stand as a famous shoot closes
- 20 CLASSIC RIFLES: The Remington Mohawk stands the test of time for Bruce Potts
- 33 RANGEFINDER: David Barrington Barnes breaks the taboo on wounding deer
- 35 KEEPER: Early learning — the safest way to handle a shotgun
- 39 SPORTING ANSWERS: Why targeting the lead goose isn't such a crime
- 44 GUNDOGS: A falconer turned trainer who confounds conventional wisdom
- 48 FISHING: Nick Fisher casts a line for the "slob" trout on the Moy
- 49 CROSSWORD: enter the Shooting Times weekly crossword
- 49 COOKING: Mark Hinge cooks up a pheasant breast Thai curry
- 51 COUNTRY DIARY: An ancient Labrador shows up the youngsters when a snipe floats away
- 58 SHARPSHOOTER: Alasdair Mitchell on how the Met Office suffers from slightly clouded vision

The wildlife of today is not ours to dispose of as we please. We have it in trust. We must account.

KING GEORGE VI